For Reference:

Using Dublin Core : The Elements

Dublin Core : Creating Metadata

Title

Date, followed by title of work if available. Analyst-derived title if necessary. Standard for analyst-derived title: "date-collection-location." Same title should be on the image file, written in camelcase.

Subject

[not used]

Description

Description of item, including main ideas addressed in the item.

Creator

Author, initial creator or owner of the item. (i.e. Howard Carter, Times Correspondent)

Source

Most recent source for the item that we accessed it via.

Publisher

Owner of the publication and reproduction rights for the item

Date

Date item was first created/written/published.

Contributor

Additional creators, important former caretakers of the item

Rights

Used with permission, note if not for reuse. Full statement approved by Gale: "© Times Newspapers Limited. This item is under a Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International Creative Commons license (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0). https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0/"

Relation

Not used here. Refers to related items, see tags for similar content.

Format

File format for images uploaded. May also include a physical description of the item photographed (incl. Page number, columns numbers, number of pages, print vs handwritten) if available. A format entry should be added for every image in the item, and a separate format entry should be created for the image and the physical object it represents.

Language

Language(s) used in the item, abbreviated in language code (i.e. en-GB for English or fr for French).

Type

Options include: Letter, Newspaper Report, Editorial, Letter to the Editor, Government Document, Personnel Record, Private Record, etc.

Identifier

Externally or source-derived identifier codes. (i.e. Gale Document Number)

Coverage

Not used here. Locations associated with the item will be reported via tags.